

SHORT PROFILE OF ATINUKE ODUKOYA

Has more than 18 years programming and leadership experience on gender mainstreaming, research, advocacy, women's human rights, capacity building, strategic planning, monitoring and evaluation. She is currently the Director of Administration at the Centre. She had worked previously with the United States Aid Agency/Office of Transition Initiatives in Nigeria as Monitoring and Evaluation Officer. Her previous work includes being the Project Officer of the women's desk for the Legal Research and Resource Development Centre, Lagos and a programs staff for the International Organization for Migration (IOM), Lagos.

Atinuke has a Masters' Degree in Public Administration (2000) from the University of Lagos, Akoka, Nigeria and a Bachelor of Science (Education) in Biology (1991) from the Olabisi Onabanjo University (formerly Ogun State University), Ago-Iwoye.